

RED SOX AND ROBINS WILL PROBABLY BE THE WINNERS

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Unless the other teams in the American and National Leagues show unexpected strength, Brooklyn and Boston will compete in the 1916 world's series, although pennants are by no means clinched. Of the two league leaders Boston made the best showing during the week. Boston ousted Detroit from first place and ended the week 28 points ahead of Jennings' men. Although Chicago moved into second place, it was 24 points behind Boston after Saturday's game. Boston won every one of the seven games it played. Chicago lost to the champions Sunday and Monday, and Detroit dropped three games to Currier's men on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Not including today's games, Boston has eight more games to play as follows:
At Cleveland, September 25; at Boston against New York, September 27, 28, 29 and 30, and against Philadelphia at Boston, October 2, 3 and 4. Detroit has four games remaining, against Washington at Detroit, September 25, and at St. Louis, September 28 and 29, and October 1. Chicago meets New York at Chicago, September 25, and Cleveland at Cleveland, on September 28, 29 and 30 and October 1. Boston with eight remaining games has almost as many as Detroit with four and Chicago with five combined.

The interseasonal results in the American League were: East 15; West 12.

Robin 9 to the Good
Brooklyn at the end of the week was nine points in front of Philadelphia, which was 22 points ahead of Boston. By winning two games from St. Louis Saturday, the New York team came within one game of the major league record for games won of 29 straight by Providence in 1884.

Beginning tomorrow Brooklyn and Philadelphia each have 11 games to play and Boston has 15. Brooklyn has one double header, Philadelphia two, and Boston six. Philadelphia meets both Brooklyn and Boston, but Boston and Brooklyn meet Chicago September 28. Brooklyn meets Chicago September 29 (two games), Philadelphia at Brook-

CLIMBERS GAIN POINTS ON THE LEAGUE LEADERS

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Boston lost ground today in the American League race by dropping a game to Cleveland, while Chicago and Detroit won. Standing:

Chicago	85	64	.570.47
Detroit	85	65	.566.66

lyn September 28, 29 and 30 and New York at home on October 2, 3, 4 and 5. In addition to its series against Brooklyn, Philadelphia meets Cincinnati at home on September 25 and 26, and Boston at Philadelphia on October 2 (two games), 3 (two games) 4 and 5. Boston, besides meeting Philadelphia, plays Pittsburgh at home in double headers on September 25 and 26, and plays New York on September 28 (two games), 29 and 30 (two games).

The schedule permits Brooklyn to play all its remaining games at home. Boston may have some advantage in the greater number of games, but as there are six double headers and only three single games, the going may prove rough for the Boston team, who, unless they brace suddenly, are in danger of losing third place to New York, which is closer to Boston than Boston is to Brooklyn.

The interseasonal results in the National League were: East 12; West 7.

Thomas, a newcomer to Washington, led the pitchers for the week with a two-hit game over St. Louis. Demaree, Philadelphia National's, beat Pittsburgh in two games of a double header on Wednesday and Alexander repeated the feat against Cincinnati Saturday.

In the American Association, Louisville has all but clinched the pennant. Clymer's men routed Kansas City in the series that ended last week and gained another full game on Indianapolis. The season ends a week from today.

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)
CLEVELAND, Sept. 24.—With the bases filled and one out in the fifth inning, Kavanagh pinch hitting for Boelling, drove a sliding ground ball over third base which rolled under the screen in far left field. The drive went for a home run and Cleveland checked the championship advance of the Boston.

OUTLAWS WIN WEIRD SORT OF A CONTEST

It was more than a baseball game. It was a circus, and a farce, and a debate, and before it was concluded, a vice raid. For three citizens had to be taken into custody for brandishing rum bottles openly. Otherwise, it was an exciting 10 to 9 victory for the Outlaws.

AMERICAN LEAGUE DETROIT STILL HAS CHANCE WINS FROM WASHINGTON ON WITH RECRUIT

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)
DETROIT, Sept. 24.—Howard Elms, the recruit from Syracuse, twirled his third victory for Detroit today, beating Washington. Walter Johnson, who was not able to win from the locals here this season, was the defeated twirler. Jennings' men hampered Johnson's offerings without mercy, Cobb leading the attack with three whiffing singles and a two-bagger in four times at bat. Cobb's double in the seventh followed by Veatch's single which Rice misjudged, scored the winning run. Score:

Francis E. Geary, head coach in the football department at the high school, while in the act of demolishing some of Sing's fried chicken Saturday night, confided to his admiring audience that he was going to have a real football team at that institution this year.

Geary with his usual tactfulness refused to divulge upon what grounds he based his claim. But it is a well known fact that when Arizona's leading impressario makes a statement, there is something behind it. No one doubted his word and everyone listened with keen interest.

He put it this way "Waiter," slight pause, and then again, "Waiter, O waiter," business of getting fresh and then, "Darn that waiter anyhow." Football team, sure I've got a football team, hey you waiter, I don't care whether you bring me any ice tea or not, but bring six or eight of those babies, squids, yes I got an Indian cup, there located him a job, and he is sure going to make a real player, pass that salt will you, Slim, this corn needs it, bring me three or four more ears will you, waiter, what was I saying? Oh, yes, that Indian, say waiter bring me some more gravy will you, about that Indian, imported, him did you say? No didn't have to, he lives near here. He's going to make a regular back or end, haven't decided which yet. Say whereine'll that waiter."

"Those boys up there," he continued after the disappearing act with the chicken as his partner "don't know that they are football players, but watch me (everybody did, too), whip 'em into shape. There's a pile of work ahead for them, but I got a nucleus, waiter more ice water here, for the love of Mike yuh been asleep, and I'm going to have a team that can beat anything this side of the Mississippi, or in it."

From the above remarks it might be safe in predicting that P. U. H. S. with the assistance of a few of the youngsters in football tocs is going to have a real grid iron combination. The school just saved a letter men this year, through graduation and other preventable accidents, but in spite of this, Geary managed to find several likely men to fill in.

The Indian which Geary mentioned, but who has no unpronounceable name, looks like one of Geary's best bets. The redskin has had several years football experience back of him, and being of a race which does not put a terrible lot of meaning into the word study, should not let his books interfere with his football.

Geary's trouble in past years has been in whipping his ends and quarterback into a semblance of a pigskin chaser. His ends particularly have never been able to solve the problem relating to the chasing of a punt down the field. They have steadfastly refused to hit the breeze, when the ball soared into the air, rather preferring to ope down the field, wondering who was going to catch the pigskin.

The first game of the season will be played a week from Saturday with the high school, has been in other words the alumni as the opponents. In the past P. U. H. S. has turned out some regular players, quite a number of whom are still kicking up the dust in the walks.

They have answered the call of the mole and pigskin and have the old age law don't expect before the opening date, should put up a creditable game against the youngsters.

Duplicating Costello's natural qualifications is Ted Chisholm. As a member of Sacred Heart College (Denver), eleven before coming here he was a consistent performer. While he has had no experience on a team of conference rank, he possesses that clean build and great speed after which coaches seek. Wiley Lawrence comes to the squad with a good high school record, and others are being shifted from guard to tackle by Evans in order that he may get a line on their ability.

Read, Eddy, Edwards and Sylvester are being worked at. Read was an all-state man among the high school teams three years ago. He handles forward passes well and is fast. Edwards and Sylvester came up with the 1915 freshmen. Eddy was a member of the squad last year.

Costello played on the freshmen team two years ago, remaining out of the game last fall. He is a product of the Denver high school. He is a dash man on the track and typifies all that Evans' ideas of a good football player imply.

That peculiar affliction of the muscles known as "Charley Horse," which is the real harbinger of the football season, is making its appearance and badly limping walks are quite the style among the elite of the squad.

"Things are beginning to look up," Evans said, in discussing the situation. "The best material in school is not on the football field, and Uncle Sam has been slow to respond to the S. O. S. of our generals for the transfer to our ranks of several of our best fighting men, but we are doing business just the same, and nobody is crabbing."

"If this fellow Evans worked as hard when playing as he is now working us, I do not wonder that he made a reputation at this football stuff," said one of the squad today.

The squad shows a decrease in numbers over last year. At this time of the season in past years more than fifty men have been in suits.

Of the letter men of last fall, six are now numbered among the squad. They are Halback Kemp, Linesmen Adams, Randall, Grieg and Heuman, and End Wilbur Adams. The Adams brothers were the only ones to play regularly.

As in past years the line presents the greatest problem to the coach. Backs and ends of some experience are coming to light each day, but the supply of forwards has proven meager.

An examination of the personnel of the squad shows a wealth of untapped material. Among those trying out for the backfield are Rapp, Nims and Leslie Eastman of last year's freshmen. All showed good as yearlings. Kemp in several of the contests last fall, being kept out the rest of the time by a bad knee. He is showing better form than ever before.
